*"Take care of the land
and it will take care of you."*
~ Jess Stonestreet Jackson

Family-owned and family-run since 1974, Jackson Family Wines was founded by Jess Jackson and Barbara Banke with a multi-generational vision to make exceptional wines while creating an agricultural heritage that will last hundreds of years. Today, three generations of the Jackson family work alongside the company's employees with a long-term commitment to making great wine and building a more sustainable future.

Through hard work and an entrepreneurial mindset, Jackson Family Wines has grown into a global portfolio of wineries and vineyards with each winery maintaining a distinct style that reflects the unique terroir of the estate vineyards and the considerable creativity of each winemaker. While their family of winegrowers has expanded over the years, the family culture and passion for making great wines have never changed.

The Jackson family remains committed to crafting world-class wines and maintaining its position at the forefront of positive change in the industry through continued innovation and leadership.

Winery of the Month

Chris Gorman descended into the wine business after graduating from university in 1991. Cutting his teeth on world class Barolo and Barbaresco, he spent 3 years working for a small Italian importer and never looked back. For the next decade, Chris was lucky to represent some of the finest wines in the world. He traveled extensively in the wine areas of Italy, Spain and Germany. His is a simple philosophy: to make wine, it is imperative to understand it.

In 2002 he took that knowledge and understanding and applied it to launch his own premium winery, which has quickly risen to "cult" status in the wine world. He remains committed to small-production wines of excellence and irreverence, with a focus on high-quality fruit, vineyards, and oak.
